EMC IN COMMUNICATION SYSTEMS

Special Session

October 08-11, 2002
Split, Dubrovnik (Croatia)
Ancona, Venice (Italy)

Call for Papers

Special Session on EMC in Communication Systems will be held aboard the luxury ship "Marko Polo" traveling on the route Split (Croatia) - Venice (Italy) - Ancona (Italy) - Dubrovnik (Croatia) in the frame of the 10th International Conference on Software, Telecommunications and Computer Networks - SoftCOM 2002.

A large amount of interest is currently generated in the area of EMC, so the participants of this Special Session will be discussing the challenges to the EMC community in realizing communications with less impact of electromagnetic interference. The session will deal with the topics listed, as well as a contributions falling within the scope of the meeting, i.e. we seek for the original, unpublished papers on all aspects of EMC in communications including, but not limited to the following topic areas:

- * Analysis and Design Innovations
- * Computational Techniques
- * Measurement Techniques
- * Time Domain Modeling
- * Technologies and Devices
- * Natural EMC Phenomena
- * Man - made Noise
- * Emission and Immunity
- * Product Safety
- * Environmental Safety
- * Radiation Hazards
- * Biological Effects
- * Lightning
- * Transients
- * Standards

State of the art reviews and advanced mathematical and computational aspects will also be welcomed.

Each day of the Conference the ship will be anchored in one of the ports and overnight it will sail toward the next destination. This could be the opportunity for the participants to discuss the latest innovations in EMC in Communications, to share ideas with their colleagues, to attend the tutorial Electromagnetic Interaction of Humans with Communication Systems and in the same time enjoy the pleasant cruising by luxury ship traveling from Croatian to Italian ports along the Adriatic coast.
