Call for Papers

The 10th International Conference on Software, Telecommunications and Computer Networks SoftCOM 2002, co-sponsored by the IEEE Communication Society (COMSOC), will be held October 8-11, 2002 aboard the luxury ship "Dalmacija" visiting attractive cities along the Croatian and Italian Adriatic coastline (Split, Venice, Ancona, Dubrovnik). SoftCOM 2002 will provide an open forum for communication and information technology researchers and engineers to discuss new and emerging systems, services and their applications particularly with emphasis on the "soft" aspects and technologies.

The Conference will feature world-known plenary speakers, tutorial presentations and workshops. Accompanying events will include business forum, exhibition and product presentations and demonstrations.

Topics to be addressed include, but are not limited to the following:

- * Communications Software
- * Telecommunications Services Design and QoS
- * Network Operations and Management
- * Internet and IP based Environments and Services
- * Mobile and Wireless Communications
- * Optical and Photonic Communications
- * Access Networks and Technologies
- * High-Speed Protocols and Networks
- * Enterprise Networking
- * Multimedia and Virtual Reality Systems and Services
- * Integration of Voice and Data Communication
- * Information Infrastructure and Security
- * Signal Processing and Coding
- * Electromagnetic Compatibility
- * Computer Methods in Biomedicine
