Call for Abstracts

The Workshop on Innovation in ICT is aimed to gather researchers, professionals from industry, students and representatives of institutions taking part in the process of innovation in the area of Information and Communication technologies to share experiences, opinions and ideas. Participants are invited to discuss the efficiency and development of the innovation system and infrastructure.

Authors are invited to prepare one or two page abstract of the presentation (please use the doc or latex template at http://marjan.fesb.hr/SoftCOM/2013/author_presenter.html) and submit the abstract through the EDAS website at http://marjan.fesb.hr/SoftCOM/2013/paper_submission.html.

Selected submissions will be presented at the professional workshop which will be held as a part of the Business forum conjoint with the SoftCOM 2013 conference. Accepted and presented abstracts will be published in the Workshop on ICT proceedings (not in Xplore!).
